WHY CHOOSE YOUR INDUSTRY NEWS

With regards to digital advertising and marketing content is everything.

Our websites have been designed with our clients in mind, everything we do is immediately indexed in all the major search engines. Importantly our websites pass on their page rank when we link to you, meaning in a short time your products will become more visible in search engines. Furthermore our news is picked up daily in Google News and Google Alerts, massively increasing your reach to potential customers.

Our approach is special: we work with you as a partner. During your membership with us, we can help with the formatting and editing of news articles and will distribute them across the relevant platforms and channels. We are transparent, giving you access to our advert monitoring company and feeding back statistics directly from tools such as Google analytics and our mailing programme so you can see what is working for you.

In the last year alone our overall advert impressions were:

5,350,108

“It is always refreshing to work with those media partners who have a passion for what they do and an eagerness to serve their clients well and that is exactly what we found with Your Industry News. Our media campaigns with them always deliver great traffic to our websites and high quality enquiries from our potential customers. The Your Industry News Team is absolutely fantastic, always ready to help and advise the best way to promote your services.”

WHAT WE OFFER

Member Profiles and Packages

Member's profiles offer an intelligent online advertising solution, supporting your corporate identity and brand awareness. Our solution enables you to set your own keywords and tags. Also, clients can feature their content, including interviews, case studies, press, white papers, videos, events, jobs, products and services.

The profiles are housed at yourindustryprofile.com and are featured on each relevant industry news website. This means that your company profile can be found through any news sections relevant to your business, thus providing brand exposure to more targeted audiences, increased traffic to your website, SEO and link building.
